From the Rector:

"NT Diocesan clergy travelled to Katherine from Groote Island, Arnhem Land, Alice Springs and Darwin to meet together at our annual clergy conference.

We got to know each other a bit more and were encouraged by hearing many positive stories of vibrant and exciting ministries in our Diocese.

We were honest about the challenges we all sometimes face too.

Bishop Greg led a study on the 13th Book of Hebrews where principles of Christian leadership are described.

Our guest was Steve Davis who is the new SA/NT officer for the Bush Church Aid Society. Steve wants to work with the NT Diocese and to continue to work in partnership with us.

Bishop Greg's well-prepared presentations on many topics relevant to us were well received and we thanked him for that.

We talked and shared ideas about creating lively worship and the principles and practises of evangelism."

Anglican-Lutheran Covenant Still Strong in Tennant Creek

Since 6 September 2002

Win invited Pastor Radke to celebrate the first Lutheran Service in Tennant Creek on 15 November 1965.

From the Bishop:

I send best wishes, on behalf of the Anglican Church in the Northern Territory, for the special commemoration of 50 years of Lutheran worship (as far as we know!) at Tennant Creek.

It is a real blessing to have a covenant in place between the Lutherans and Anglicans for joint worship in Tennant, and we hope that this arrangement can continue for years into the future.

Anglicans and Lutherans have a common theological heritage in the events of the Reformation nearly 500 years ago, especially the good news that God makes us right with himself through the grace that comes through Jesus Christ.

Every time that we gather as the people of God, in a remote place like Tennant Creek, or a more populated place like Darwin or Alice Springs, it is an opportunity to celebrate God's goodness to us in Jesus.

The strength of a partnership like that between Lutherans and Anglicans in Tennant is that we aren't exactly the same, but nevertheless we can show that we are one family together in God's grace.

God bless all of you who are gathered for this celebration, and God make you strong to keep bearing witness to Jesus, in Tennant Creek, and everywhere else that God places you.
